

MANDATE OF THE LEAD DIRECTOR

The Lead Director is appointed by the Board of Directors of the Corporation (the "Board"). The Lead Director must be independent within the meaning of the Securities Act (Québec) and the regulations adopted thereunder.

The Lead Director's key role is to take all reasonable measures to ensure that the Board 1) has structures and procedures in place to enable it to function independently and 2) carries out its duties in this regard effectively.

The Lead Director is responsible for:

- Chairing all the meetings of the independent directors;
- Chairing the meetings of the Board where the non-independent members are in a conflict of interest or do not participate in discussions relating to an agenda item and do not participate in the vote;
- Set the proposed agendas for the meetings he/she chairs, in consultation with the secretary or assistant secretary;
- Taking reasonable measures to ensure that the meetings of the independent directors are conducted in such a manner as to promote discussion and allow for the efficient and effective review and discussion of the issues submitted to the independent directors;
- Serving as a liaison, when necessary, between the independent directors and the Chair of the Board with respect to issues not readily or easily discussed at meetings of the full Board;
- Communicating with the Chair of the Board and/or President and Chief Executive Officer as appropriate, on the discussions held during meetings of the independent directors;
- Lead, together with the Chair of the Governance, Social Responsibility and Nominating Committee and the Chair of the Board, the annual Board assessment process and directors' self-assessment on their efficiency and contribution;
- Serving as Chairman of the Board, at the Chair's request when he is unavailable for a meeting of the Board;
- Serving as a member of the Governance, Social Responsibility and Nominating Committee;
- Performing such other functions as may be reasonably requested by the Board or the Chair of the Board.

Performance Assessment

The Governance, Responsibility and Nominating Committee annually supervises the performance assessment of the Lead Director. The compiled results are submitted Social to the Lead Director, who shares them with the Governance Committee, and then presents them to the Board.
